Dan Flores is a graduate of CJUSD and proudly represents the schools and community where he grew up. He has worked in the public and non-profit sectors for two decades. Dan began his career in public service with the County of San Bernardino in 2004. He served as the Chief of Staff and principal policy advisor for a member of the Board of Supervisors specializing in local government, community development, housing, and social services. In 2020, Dan was appointed Executive Director of Mary's Mercy Center, a longstanding non-profit organization that provides meals, clothing, and transitional housing to homeless families and individuals in the City of San Bernardino.

Dan's priorities as a school board member include fostering a culture of equity for staff and students, creating college and career pathways for all students, and fulfilling the facilities improvement plan adopted by the voters under Measure G.

Dan volunteers as a board member for the district's Tomorrow's Leaders Foundation and as a coach for the Colton Youth Soccer Organization. He holds a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University, a Master of Theological Studies from Harvard Divinity School, and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Southern California. He resides in Colton with his beautiful wife, Abby, and their three children who attend Colton Middle School and Paul J. Rogers Elementary School.
