This Unit We Will Take Coded Notes:

- If you need to take Cornell notes for another class (e.g. AVID), this method of note taking will still work.
- As you take notes, underline all names and dates.
- At the end of the unit, you will go back and highlight key concepts.
The Renaissance

- Literally means: Rebirth
- High Renaissance 1450-1500 C.E.
- 1453 Turks conquer Constantinople
  - Byzantine scholars take Greek artifacts back to Italy
- Transitional Renaissance 1550-1600
- Great renewal of European interests in Ancient Greek & Roman Cultures
Europe around 1500 AD

Largest Cities in Western Europe, ca. 1500. There were as many large cities in the Italian peninsula as in all of the rest of Western Europe.
The Renaissance

• A new concept emerges
• Humanism
  – A dedication to human, instead of spiritual ideals and values
  – Salvation after death is no longer the only goal
  – Fulfillment in life and enjoyment the pleasures of the senses

Look to the Past

• Most concrete physical examples destroyed
  – Buildings
  – Statues

• New translations of ancient texts makes them available
  – Philosophy
  – Poetry
  – Art
  – Essays
  – Music theory
That’s the Power of Music

- Europeans were intrigued by the supposed power of ancient music
- Curious why their music had no such power
- Music does not change as much as the other arts
The Ideal Renaissance Sound

- 4 voices (a capella)
  - homophonic, heterophonic and polyphonic
- Instruments play within a family
- Care given to underlying text
- Mostly imitative counterpoint with a single text
- Most composers are Franco-Flemish or from the Netherlands
The Printing Press

• The most significant invention of the Renaissance
• Music and books now available to the masses
• New accuracy
• Better Supply
• Better Historical Record
• Johann Gutenberg’s Moveable Type Printing Press (1450)
Ottaviano Petrucci
First to publish music using the Press (1473)

• 3 step process

Des Prez’s Life

– Born in France
– Singer in the Milan cathedral
– Kappelmeister for the Pope
– 1503 appointed Maestro di capella to court of Ferrara at the highest salary in the history of the chapel
Words & Music

• Gradual evolution from 1450-1600
• Josquin and contemporaries add new focus to texts
• Composers stay true to the author
  – Focus on punctuation and syntax
  – text determines the musical structure
  – words must be heard and understood
  – Music stress matches textual accents
  – Text printed to aid in accuracy
Rise of the National Styles

• Amidst the international style of the Franco-Flemish generation many countries began to develop a national style
Italy

• Italian Madrigal
  – Most important genre of music of the 1500s
  – Through composed setting of a short poem
  – Text tended to be more serious
  – Social music
    • sung mostly for the enjoyment of the performers
  – Increased use of chromaticism to emulate Greek affections
  – Using imitative counterpoint with 3-12 voices
Italian Madrigal Styles

• I. Early (1515-1545)
  • Jacob Arcadelt

• II. Classic (1545-1580)
  – 4-5 voice imitative polyphony, harmonic bass and word painting (madrigalism)
    • Orlando de Lasso
    • Palestrina

• III. Late (1580-1620)
  – Short phrases, obsessed with death, lots of chromaticism and madrigalisms
    • Luca Marenzio (1553-1599)
    • Monteverdi
    • Don Carlo Gesualdo – most avant garde
Carlo Gesualdo (1561-1613)

• Prince of Venosa
• His music is deeply moving
  – Using chromaticism and close attention to the text
• 1586 - marries his cousin Maria d’Avalos
• She soon takes a lover, the Duke of Andria
• Gesualdo finds them in bed
• Murders them both on the spot
England

- Age of secular part songs came to the island later than the continent
- 1588- Musica Transalpina
  - Italian madrigals translated into English
- Borrow Italian Balletto - call them “fa la las”
- 1590-1638 (reigns of Elizabeth I and James I)
  - All educated people expected to be able to read music
- Composers: Thomas Morley, Thomas Weelkes
• English Lute Songs
  – Solo song with Lute or viol accompaniment
• Composers
  – John Dowland (1562-1626)
  – Thomas Champion (1567-1620)
Flow, my tears, fall from your springs!
Exiled for ever, let me mourn;
Where night's black bird her sad infamy sings,
There let me live forlorn.
Down vain lights, shine you no more!
No nights are dark enough for those
That in despair their lost fortunes deplore.
Light doth but shame disclose.
Feel not the world's despite.

Never may my woes be relieved,
Since pity is fled;
And tears and sighs and groans my weary days
Of all joys have deprived.
From the highest spire of contentment
My fortune is thrown;
And fear and grief and pain for my deserts
Are my hopes, since hope is gone.
Hark! you shadows that in darkness dwell,
Learn to contemn light
Happy, happy they that in hell
Feel not the world’s despite
A World of Change

- Copernicus (1473-1543) proposes that the world revolves around the sun
- 1492 - Columbus sails to America (in search of India)
- 1519-1521 - Magellan sails around the globe
A World of Change

- A population boom causes food shortages and increased risk of epidemic and war

- Later the Emperor declares anyone can kill Luther without threat of punishment
- Luther goes into hiding and translates the New Testament into German (in only 11 weeks)
- March 6, 1521 Luther returns to Wittenberg to head the now established Protestant church
- Luther died in 1546
Martin Luther: The Musician

• a singer
• a composer
• Admirer of Franco-Flemish polyphony
  – Especially Josquin des Prez
• Proponent of the educational and ethical power of music
• Wanted the congregation to be a part of the music
Luther’s Duedsche Messe

- 1526 composed by Luther
- First mass in a vernacular language
- Follows outline of the Roman Mass – slight differences
- Allowed the congregation to sing
The Lutheran Chorale

- Most important musical innovation of the Lutheran Church
- A strophic congregational hymn
- 2 elements
  - Text & Tune
- Intended for unison congregational singing
- Contrafacta
  - old (secular) tune receiving a new “spiritual” text
The Calvinist Church

- John Calvin (1509-1564) and Ulrich Zwingli
- Held a stronger opposition to Catholic liturgy than Luther
- Distrust of art in worship
- Forbade the singing of texts not from the Bible
- Musical contribution: The Psalter
  - Metrical settings of the Psalms
  - To original music or borrowed popular tunes
    - (ex. Old One Hundredth)
