

OPTIONS FOR CREDIT DEFICIENT STUDENTS

Are you behind in credits? Are you having trouble in your classes? Are you looking for a solution? Read below for alternative options!

1. Washington Opportunity – This program is designed for 9th and 10th graders who are behind in credits and are having difficulty on the BHS campus. The classes are limited to 25 students and have a full-time aide in each class. The campus is in Colton but there is bussing. If you are interested to apply for a voluntary transfer, see a counselor for details.
2. Washington Independent Study – This is a home studies program. You attend class a minimum of only 1 day a week for 2 hours. You have a standing appointment each week at that time. You have to do 20 hours of homework each week and take the chapter tests in class. This program does not get you ahead on credits. Historically students earn between 20-25 credits per semester. You can attend class more than one day a week if you want to go faster. The school is located on Cedar and Orange streets.
3. Slover Mountain High School - This program is for students 16 and older. It is a fast paced program designed to help students make up credits at a faster pace. Students apply every 6 weeks on a voluntary basis. Slover students can earn up to 90 credits in a year and they graduate from there with only 200 credits. Transfer is not automatic and students shouldn't be too far behind in credits.
4. Online classes – Must be approved by counselor prior to signing up. Example- BYU online-These classes are available on-line to make up credits of failed classes. There is a cost of typically $128 per each 5 unit class. See your counselor for details and other programs.
5. Community College concurrent enrollment-
 - a. Riverside Community College www.rcc.edu
 - b. San Bernardino Valley College www.valleycollege.edu
 - c. Chaffey Community College www.chaffey.edu
6. See counselor for other possible options