Dan Flores is a graduate and lifelong resident of the Colton Joint Unified School District. Dan is the Executive Director of Mary's Mercy Center, Inc., a nonprofit organization that provides support services and transitional housing to homeless families and individuals in San Bernardino County. Prior to his work in the nonprofit sector, Dan served as the longtime Chief of Staff to a member of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors, focusing on housing, workforce, and homeless policy issues.

His priorities as a Trustee include fostering a culture of equity, creating college and career pathways for all students, and fulfilling the facilities improvement plan adopted by the voters under the Measure G bond issuance.

Dan holds a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University, a Master of Theological Studies from Harvard Divinity School, and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Southern California. Dan and his wife, Abby, live in Colton with their three school aged children.
