

60 Day Notice: Obsolete Instructional Materials

At the Board of Education meeting held on June 10, 2021, the Board of Education declared various instructional materials (student desks) as obsolete and unusable for educational purposes within the district.

In accordance with Board Policy 3270, the Colton Joint Unified School District is hereby providing a 60-day public notice of its intent to dispose of instructional materials (student desks) that are located at various schools in the District.

Education Codes 60510 and 60530 authorizes the Board of Education to dispose of instructional materials in any of the following ways:

- (a) By donation to a governing board, county free library, or other state institution.
- (b) By donation to a public agency or institution of any territory or possession of the United States, or the government of a country that formerly was a territory or possession of the United States.
- (c) By donation to a nonprofit charitable organization.
- (d) By donation to children or adults in the State of California, or foreign countries for the purpose of increasing the general literacy of the people.
- (e) By sale
- (f) Undistributed materials via mutilation or sale for scrap value

In keeping with the criteria outlined above, the intent of the District is to donate the instructional materials (student desks) to current students of the Colton Joint Unified School District and their families.

The distribution of the obsolete instructional materials to CJUSD students will be coordinated with the schools housing these materials after the fall 2021 term commences. After distribution to CJUSD students is completed, the remaining instructional materials shall be disposed of by any combination of: offering the remaining inventory to public agencies, recycling for scrap value and/or public action through a third party.

Any interested and qualified entity as detailed above, must submit a written request for additional information. The deadline for submission is August 13, 2021. Written requests for information should be submitted to: Purchasing850@CJUSD.net and the subject line must be titled: "OBSOLETE INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS INQUIRY."

For additional information, contact JoAnn Baeza, Director of Purchasing, Warehouse and Print Shop. @JoAnn_Baeza@CJUSD.net.